iPhone Skills Inventory

1. General

1.1. You can turn your iPhone on and off.

1.2. You can “force restart” your iPhone.

1.3. You can lock, unlock and wake your iPhone.

1.4. You can find key information about your iPhone: model name, serial number, type of process, amount of memory and storage, and the version of the OS your iPhone is using.

1.5. You can “read” the icons in your iPhone’s status bar.

1.6. You can adjust the volume of your iPhone’s speakers.

1.7. You can use the “Screen Time” to review how you are spending time when using your iPhone.

1.8. You can sign in and out of your Apple account.

1.9. You can keep the version of software on your device (i.e., the OS and apps) up to date.

1.10. You can create screenshots and/or record the screen.

2. Basic Customizations

2.1. You can increase/decrease the size of text and other onscreen content.

2.2. You can turn Dark Mode on and off (to reduce eyestrain in low-light environments).

2.3. You can change the date and time.

2.4. You can change the name of your iPhone.

2.5. You can configure accounts the Mail, Contacts, and Calendar apps use.

2.6. You can change the apps your iPhone uses by default when opening files and links.

2.7. You can change the internet search engine your iPhone uses by default.

2.8. You can personalize your Lock Screen by choosing a wallpaper, showcasing a favorite photo, changing the font of the time, adding widgets, etc.

3. Managing WiFi and cellular network connections

3.1. You can view and change your cellular data settings.

3.2. You can determine if your iPhone is connected to a cellular network.

3.3. You can turn your iPhone's cellular network connection on and off.

3.4. You can determine if you iPhone is connected to a WiFi network.

3.5. You can turn your iPhone's WiFi connection on and off.

3.6. You know how to "tell" your iPhone to "remember" and "forget" a WiFi network.

4. Managing storage

4.1. You can check how much of both your local and iCloud storage is currently used.

4.2. You can control when a file is saved to local storage or iCloud storage.

4.3. You can remove files from both your local storage and iCloud storage to increase the amount of available storage.

4.4. You can offload (i.e., remove) apps (with or without retaining data they manage).

5. Accessing and managing apps

5.1. You can find apps installed on your iPhone.

5.2. You can install and remove apps.

5.3. You can open and quit apps.

5.4. You can switch between open apps.

5.5. You can find an app's settings.

5.6. You can access & use Quick Action menus.

5.7. You can rearrange app icons on your Home Screen.

6. Finding things on your iPhone

6.1. You can use Spotlight to find apps, files, messages (email and text), etc stored on your iPhone.

7. Notifications

7.1. You can change the sound your iPhone plays when you get a call, message, or alert.

7.2. You know how to make your iPhone vibrate instead of make a sound when a notification arrives.

7.3. You can dismiss a notification when it appears on your screen.

7.4. You can find/view a notification after you have dismissed it.

7.5. You can turn off notifications for an app that uses notifications.

7.6. You can "silence" your iPhone when you don't want to be disturbed/distracted by alerts/notifications.